Definitions:

Companion Agencies – Often called non-medical or private duty, companion agencies are able to assist individuals with ADLs (activities of daily living), meals, housekeeping, laundry, friendly visits/supervision, grocery shopping and accompanying individuals on medical appointments. Companion agencies cannot assist with medical or nursing related needs.

Licensed Agencies – Licensed agencies are most appropriate for individuals who have a skilled medical or nursing need or require a higher level of physical assistance. Most licensed agencies also offer companion type services as well.

Note: All Companion and Licensed agencies differ on the level of assistance and care they provide, contact agencies directly for a full list of amenities and services.

NYS Department of Health is responsible for monitoring the care provided by home care agencies. Complaints, questions or concerns should be directed to the Department of Health's hotline: 1 (800) 628-5972.
